Seviche's Dinner and Movie returns with Chef, Feb. 9

Chef Anthony Lamas pairs comedy with incredible cuisine for five-course dining event

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (Jan. 12, 2014) – Seviche will bring back the popular Dinner and Movie event Monday, Feb. 9 at 6:30 p.m. with the film Chef starring Jon Favreau and Sofia Vergara. The evening's five-course menu will feature caviar, French onion soup, pasta agilo e olio and chocolate lava cake for dessert. In the movie, Jon Favreau's character rediscovers his love for Cuban cuisine when he visits Miami to spend time with his son. Inspired by this key on-screen turning point, chef Lamas created the mojo pork Cubano to serve as the third course of the night.

Dinner will be held in the restaurant's spacious private dining room. Guests may enjoy the movie shown on an eight-foot screen while each course is served. The price for dinner and drink pairings is $65 per person, plus tax and gratuity. Seating is limited. Please call (502) 473-8560 to secure a reservation in advance; credit card information is required.

The courses for the Dinner and Movie event include:

First Course

Poached egg and caviar

Second Course

French onion soup

Third Course

Mojo pork Cubano

Fourth Course

Pasta agilo e olio

Fifth Course

Chocolate lava cake

About Chef:

Acclaimed chef Carl Casper is finding his career to be as exhausted as his diminishing family life. His frustrations reach a boiling point when a raucous public confrontation with a known restaurant critic is caught on video. With a ruined career and no solution in sight, Carl's ex-wife Inez has an unconventional idea – repurposing an old food truck where he can cook quality food on his own terms. With the help of his son Percy and buddy Martin, Carl treks across the country in the truck to rediscover his passion, and in doing so, realizes a deeper connection to his life and family that is even more satisfying.
